VII 次の英文を読んで以下の問いに答えなさい。

I spent two days at host family's house in Chicago. My host family is very kind and friendly. I am very happy. And I experienced a custom in the U.S.

People in the U.S. don't take off their shoes when they go into their homes. I have believed that story before. So, when I arrived at my host family yesterday, I didn't take off my shoes. Just then, my host father asked me, "Take off your shoes, please." When I heard the order from the father, I was really surprised. In their home, people take off their shoes when they enter the house.

(①) of my classmates said to me, "My family take off their shoes at the door." Other classmates also said to me, "My family usually leave their shoes (②). But, when it is (③) or snowy, they always take them off. They don't want to clean the floor *afterwards!"

It was (④) at first, but I got used to ⑤it. Now I just watch to see what other people do when they go into a house. If I come alone to somebody's house, I will ask him, "Do I have to take my shoes off?" That's the easiest way---just ask if ⑥you're not sure.

注) *afterwards あとで
